

Noah Camuso

(503) 551-0583 | noahcamuso@gmail.com | noahcamuso.com | Salem, OR

Journalism Experience

JPR, NPR Affiliate, Reporting Intern | Ashland, OR June 2022- Present

- Receiving mentorship from experienced radio professionals on hosting and reporting
- Producing stories that are shared statewide
- Attending seminars and workshops

The Fire Story Podcast Producer | Eugene, OR May 2021-June 2022

- Produced two 20-minute episodes on wildfire solutions for the general public
- Researched, interviewed experts and communicated scientific concepts
- Created an extensive educational document

Crossings Institute, Research Fellow | PdE, Uruguay April- June 2022

- Provided live coverage of the annual World Press Freedom Day Conference
- Produced print stories and a radio feature
- Collaborated with international journalists

KLCC, NPR Affiliate, Reporting Intern | Eugene, OR Oct. 2021- April 2022

- Reported and produced radio wraps and features each week on deadline
- Pitched relevant community stories
- Covered local press events

Blind Landing Voice Actor/PA | Remote April 2021- Sept. 2021

- Assisted with writing and editing podcast recognized by The New York Times with over 50,000 downloads
- Voice acted, fact-checked and researched
- Collaborated virtually with a small national team

The Ones Who Stayed Podcast | Eugene, OR Jan 2021- June 2021

- Created an award-winning 28-minute podcast
- Trauma-informed, solutions-based reporting
- Received hands-on science communication mentorship from renowned journalists

Additional Experience

Miller Timber Wildland FireFighter, Pacific Northwest, Summers 2019/2020

- Fought wildfires in Oregon, Idaho and Northern California on a mobile crew over the summer
- Communicated with colleagues in crises
- Executed orders following safety protocol

Petitioner/Signature Gatherer, Oregon December 2019-July 2020

- Asked voters at public locations to sign petitions to put initiatives on the 2020 ballot
- Personally collected over 2,000 signatures for a winning campaign on a 20-person team

Education and Awards

Bachelor of Science in Journalism, March 2022 | Outstanding Journalism Graduate Award
Creative Writing & Music Minors, University of Oregon, Eugene, OR